William Sucharski, a national authority on crematory standards, is our featured speaker. He'll talk to us about cremation and take us on a tour of the crematory.

Come get answers to some of these questions and ask your own!

- How can I know it's really Mom?
- What about air pollution?
- Where is it legal to put Mom's remains?
- Can I scatter ashes in the ocean?
- How long does a crematory keep the body before cremating it?
- What is to prevent the abandonment of bodies that happened in Georgia?
- Can I witness the cremation box entering the cremation chamber?
- What is required for burial of ashes in a military cemetery?

Any other questions?

The FCA Of Greater Philadelphia Advocates for You!

Since 1963, the Funeral Consumers Alliance has been at the forefront in saving consumers millions of dollars while helping them get exactly what is needed for the funeral of their loved one. Whether your question is on funerals, cemeteries, organ donation, or monuments, we are here to answer them. Our Board collectively has over a hundred years of experience as advocates. We are in the process of creating a price survey of the funeral directors in the greater Philadelphia area, and would love to have you volunteer to gather price lists. Join us today.
